Kimberlee Marie Deak

Precious Kimber, from cradle to cap & gown, where has the time gone? I am overwhelmed with wonderful memories and mixed emotions. Pride and joy in all your accomplishments, yet sadness in knowing that your childhood days are coming to an end. Now you've grown into a strong and beautiful young lady, so I know I must have done something right. Always, hold tight to the values and self confidence that brought you to this point. Your high standards have led you to excel both academically, and in your personal life. So now you can hold your head high with dignity, knowing that you have always put forth your best efforts, and honestly earned the scholastic honors, and life blessings you've received. Furthermore, we are certain the future will only bring even more of the same. We are so proud of everything you've done and love you infinitely!!!

-Love Mom, Dad, Summer, & Chris

Sally Alexandria Dawson

Where do I begin, I started dreaming of having a daughter named Alex when I was just a child. As time passed I dreamed of what you would look like, what you would act like, etc, etc...Then I met your Daddy and we both wanted a child and we tried to have you for so many years until we wondered if we ever would have child. Then just at that moment when we weren't looking and when we least expected it the Lord blessed us with you. He sent you to us during one of the worst tragedies in our lives, he gave us hope, joy and he gave us so much more. You came to us much sooner than expected born weighing 2 lbs 3 oz. and over 3 months early, that was a very scary time for us they said we could lose you, that you could be behind in your development among many other things, but the Lord had other plans. He planned to have us love you even more than we had imagined, even though we had longed for you and imagined you for so long, we had no idea what a blessing you would be to our lives. He created you to exceed every expectation we could have dreamt of...you are amazingly beautiful despite all of your insecurities that are part of what makes you so beautiful. You are so unbelievably strong in your faith and beliefs which I think is the one thing that makes us the proudest of the young lady you have grown into. You will stand for what you believe in and that makes your Dad and me very proud. You are determined and driven even when things haven't always gone your way and at first you didn't succeed. You pressed forward, learned from the failure, would try again and usually succeed; you will need this in life as obstacles come your way. You are loyal and faithful, someone that people can depend on, and caring and thoughtful to others when they are in need. I could just go on and on but I won't. Just keep pressing onward baby toward the goal, always remember the Lord has a plan for your life just as he had plan for mine and Dads. It seems like you have grown as quickly as you came into this world and at times I wish I could turn back the clock, but at others I anxiously wait to see what the rest of your life will hold. We waited for you for a long time, and in the Lord's perfect timing our dreams were fulfilled, and we can never thank him enough for allowing us to be your parents. Remember to always look to him for his will in your life, he will deliver and it will surpass anything you could have ever dreamt of. Proverbs 3:5-7

Love you more than all the stars in the sky, Mom and Dad

BROSNAN COOKS

Brosnan, you have come to the end of your high school journey. As you step into the next phase of your life remember to stay humble, keep the focus of your dreams and always keep God first. We Love you and very proud of you.

KENNETH NEIL AMISON

Kenneth Neil,

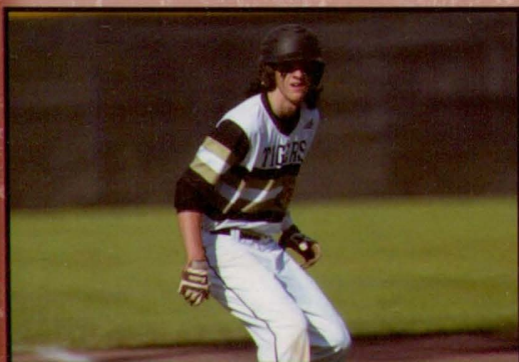

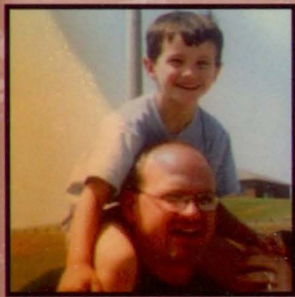

How do we even start to put into words our feelings as you reach this milestone in your life... First of all, we are so thankful that God chose you special for us. From the very first time we saw you it was love at first sight. You were one of 14 in the nursery that day but you were the most beautiful little boy of them all. You stole our hearts then just as you do now.

It is hard to believe that this portion of our journey raising you is quickly coming to an end. It has been pure joy watching you mature not only physically into the young man that you are today but spiritually as well. It warms our hearts to see you serve daily our Heavenly Father. To see you sitting behind that piano serving and praising God is a blessing to us. We love that your faith never waivers or compromises. We knew when you were 4 years old that God had a special plan for you and we can't wait to see where He leads you.

We have also enjoyed watching you play the sport that you love...Baseball. Your work ethic, determination, and leadership inspires us. As that final at bat draws near, we face it with mixed emotions. Excited that you will soon be taking a swing at the college life but sad that you won't suit up in the black and gold next year. So, we will make the most of every play, every at bat, every memory that this season holds.

You make us proud Kenneth Neil. Set your goals high and keep looking to Him for guidance and we will be praying you up along the way. As Daddy always tells you..."Humble yourself before the Lord and He will raise you up in due time". We love you Skinny!

April 14, 1998 was a wonderful and exciting day in our lives as we saw your sweet little face and held you in our arms for the first time.
We treasure having you in our lives and sharing the things in life you enjoy, like Alabama, hunting, fishing and sports. We cherish all the moments we have spent watching you grow from
"Baby Man" to the young man you are today. You mean the world to us and words can't express how proud we are of you and how much we love you.

Love, with all our hearts,
Mom, Dad, Chanlyn & Lynlee

"Blessed Gift"

Life is a journey.
Be honest, Work hard, Be choosy.
Say "thank you", "I love you", and "great job"...
to someone each day.
Go to church and always take time for prayer.
Love life and what you've been given...
it is not accidental.
Search for your purpose and do it as best as you can.
Dreaming does matter. Laugh often.
Appreciate the little things in life.
Some of the best things really are free.
Let your handshake or hug... mean more than pen and paper.
Forgive, it frees the soul.
Take time for yourself - plan for longevity.
The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh...
but don't forget sweetheart...
You have angels watching over you.
Make memories and never forget how proud we are of you
And all that you have conquered despite all the challenges you have faced.
You are our miracle
and we treasure every memory we have with you.
You're amazing in every way.. our sweet Hannah!

With all of our love,
Momma, Dad, Blake, Logan and Casey.

God is WITHIN her,
She WILL NOT FAIL.

PSALM 46:5

We are so proud of the Godly young woman you are. Your future is surely a bright one, so go out there and conquer that great big world!

Love you,

Mom and Dad

Co-Editor's Note

My name is Alex Dawson I have been a a part of the journalism staff for 2 years now. I gladly took the role to become the Co-Editor of the yearbook. My years at Elba have taught me that whatever you want you have to set your mind to it and you will either fail while trying or achieve. This yearbook is filled with memories from my senior year and I feel honored to get the opportunity to have such a huge role in the making of Elba High School's yearbook.

As Co-Editor I have helped my editor with any decisions that needed to be made and also I helped our journalism teacher with the Miss Elbala Pageant. This position has made me realize many things that I need to work on and also my skills that will help me get closer to the person that I want to be in the future. I would like to thank everyone that has ever been an inspiration to me throughout my years at Elba High and I would like to also thank our yearbook sponsor Casey Danner. I am proud to call this school my alma mater.

Sincerely,

Alex Dawson

Editor's Note

To all Elbala readers and viewers, I would like to formally introduce myself. I am Kimberlee Marie Deak and I am Elbala's 2015-2016 Yearbook Editor! I have thoroughly enjoyed this position, despite the amount of stress, and OCD it has given me, (lol). I have worked very hard to make this years edition of the Elbala the best one yet! I have loved capturing the timeless moments that have happened this school year, and have done my very best to display them all for you to have forever, as a cherished keepsake. I hope you all love it as much as I do, because I think it has turned out magnificently! I would like to thank my awesome yearbook staff members for being such great help, and our even greater yearbook sponsor, Ms. Danner. I will forever remember, and look back on my senior year, and days working on the yearbook, with the fondest of memories.
